Custard Apple (Atemoya)

SAKYA. The flesh is fragrant and sweet, creamy white through light yellow, and resembles and tastes like custard. The seeds are coated with the flesh. It is soft, slightly grainy, and slippery. Taiwan has completed the development of new varieties. The sweetness of this fruit is similar to that of sweet apples, but the taste is completely different. As its name suggests, it tastes like pineapple.

Sweetness above 18 degrees | Two harvests a year | August to October and December to March
